CONSULTING SERVICES FOR TRADITIONAL MEDIA PLANNING, BUYING, AND PLACEMENTS AGENCY FOR MEDITERRANEAN

I. Background

In July 2023, the Department of Tourism introduced its transformative Love the Philippines campaign, ushering in a new era for the tourism department in the aftermath of the pandemic. While several Asian countries are ramping up their branding efforts, Love the Philippines takes the department's previous campaign to a higher level, transcending the notion of mere leisure and fun. This new campaign is devised to support the department achieve its goal of positioning the country as a tourism powerhouse in Asia.

To drive this powerful message forward, the Department of Tourism has devised an Integrated Marketing Communication plan and execution strategy. This comprehensive approach has resulted in the creation of diverse creative assets, including captivating AVPs (TV commercial-ready videos, digital ads, and social media content), compelling print ads, engaging radio ads, eye-catching OOH (Out-of-Home) materials, and other relevant executions. These assets have been designed to amplify and reinforce the overarching strategy of the Love the Philippines campaign.

For the successful implementation of the campaign, an Agency will be procured to strategically distribute the creative content through traditional media channels focused on the Mediterranean market. This approach ensures that the campaign reaches and resonates with the target audience across multiple touchpoints, maximizing its impact and effectiveness to the identified markets.

II. Objectives

By combining a powerful concept with a carefully crafted Integrated Marketing Communication plan and strategic media content distribution, the procured agency will help DOT:

1. Strategically position the Philippines' global tourism campaign in the traditional medium, ensuring a powerful and engaging launch that captures the attention of target audiences in Mediterranean.
2. Implement a comprehensive media placement strategy that sustains the momentum of the campaign, through continuous visibility across various traditional media platforms, thereby keeping the Philippines' tourism efforts at the forefront of travelers' minds in Mediterranean.
3. Utilize data analytics to continuously evaluate the effectiveness of media placements, enabling real-time adjustments and optimizations to achieve maximum impact and return on investment.

4. Employ geotargeting techniques to deliver tailored messages to specific regions, optimizing the campaign's relevance and resonance within each market.
5. Keep a close eye on competitors' media placement strategies and adjust tactics accordingly to maintain a competitive edge in the global tourism market.

III. Scope of Work and Deliverables
