Description

I. BRIEF BACKGROUND :

The Philippines' potential as a coffee travel destination has always been increasing due to its distinctive coffee varieties, rich cultural legacy, and stunning scenery. Different Arabica and Robusta beans are produced in areas like Benguet and Sagada. Coffee enthusiasts explore traditional farming methods, engage with local farmers, and experience the charm of rural communities. These locally produced beans makes it way to local and artisan coffee shops in Metro Manila. Coffee Strips in the capital can be seen on Salcedo, Legazpi, and Poblacion in Makati and Kapitolyo in Pasig City.

II. OBJECTIVES / GOALS :

- To highlight various flavors of Filipino coffee, supporting local economies, and encouraging sustainable practices;
- Establish Manila/The Philippines as the MICE destination for Local and International Coffee Festivals.
